A History with a Difference Jun 16 2021

Saved by Grace through Faith or Saved by Decree? Jan 30 2020 This work addresses a topic of interest to many people who are seeking to better understand the Christian doctrine of salvation (soteriology). It is written to provide a systematic biblical and theological critique of a particularly popular perspective of this doctrine that has seen something of a resurgence in recent years, namely Calvinism. The book is structured around the so-called five points of Calvinism, commonly referred to by the acronym TULIP: Total depravity, Unconditional election, Limited atonement, Irresistible grace, and Perseverance of the saints. Following an initial chapter outlining the historical development of the doctrine, each of the five points are examined in subsequent chapters. Each point is described in the words of prominent Calvinist scholars, key biblical texts purporting to support the doctrine carefully evaluated, and a series of theological issues related to the point are raised and discussed.

Key to the Missionary Problem Nov 09 2020 Why is there a "missionary problem?" Surely with the millions of Christians around the world, we can marshal a mighty force of well-equipped missionaries sent out to proclaim the gospel. Then why do missions struggle? Murray sets forth the answer in a strong call to action.

Senator: 1876-1965 The Life and Career of Elmer Thomas Jun 04 2020 Senator: 1876-1965 "The Life and Career of Elmer Thomas" expounds the incredible life and times of Senator John William Elmer Thomas, one of America's most committed and influential politicians and its unsung heroes. Elmer Thomas was from a generation that not only helped to build the country but also devoted his life to serving it. This book is a thorough examination of the events and influences that shaped him from his early days growing up on a farm in Indiana to his travels in the Wild West and Oklahoma where he took up residence. It was here that he was elected to the Oklahoma state senate (1927-1951) and ultimately became a member of the US Congress and later the US Senate. Senator Thomas' role as a gamely statesmen, wonderful orator and sound economic manager make him one of the unsung heroes of America's 20th Century.

The Big Comeback Jan 12 2021 "I'm not gay; I'm just Flicky's biggest fan." Hotel clerk Luke Rogers is former pop star Flicky Hernandez's biggest fan. He's not gay. He just likes Flicky. A lot. A regular guest at the hotel where Luke works looks a lot like Flicky. But wouldn't Flicky be staying at a nicer place than this? Wouldn't Flicky be traveling with an entourage? Luke isn't gay. But he's never felt love like this. "I was all alone as soon as my song fell off the charts." Alex had a one-hit wonder as "Flicky." Nowadays he keeps a low profile. Not like any fans remember him anyway. Alex sneaks off to a hotel to get away from his manipulative manager, and the desk clerk there seems to actually recognize him. The guy is straight, but so what? They can be friends. Unless they want much more. Luke meets his idol, and Alex might just find his way back to love -- if they can dodge sketchy ex-boyfriends, greedy record company executives, and a nosy parking garage attendant. The Big Comeback is a straight-to-gay/gay-for-you celebrity romance about second chances in life and love, with a feel-good HEA and love hotter than the Florida sun.

Covenants without Swords Oct 21 2021 Covenants without Swords examines an enduring tension within liberal theory: that between many liberals' professed commitment to universal equality on the one hand, and their historic support for the politics of hierarchy and empire on the other. It does so by examining the work of two extremely influential British liberals and internationalists, Gilbert Murray and Alfred Zimmern. Jeanne Morefield mounts a forceful challenge to disciplinary boundaries by arguing that this tension, on both the domestic and international levels, is best understood as frequently arising from the same, liberal reformist political aim—namely, the aim of fashioning a socially conscious liberalism that ultimately reifies putatively natural, preliberal notions of paternalistic order. Morefield also questions conventional analyses of interwar thought by resurrecting the work of Murray and Zimmern, and by linking their approaches to liberal internationalism with the ossified notion of sovereignty that continues to trouble international politics to this day. Ultimately, Morefield argues, these two thinkers' drift toward conservative and imperialist understandings of international order was the result of a more general difficulty still faced by liberals today: how to adequately define community in liberal terms without sacrificing these terms themselves. Moreover, Covenants without Swords suggests that Murray and Zimmern's work offers a cautionary historical example for the cadre of post-September 11th "new imperialists" who believe it possible to combine a liberal commitment to equality with an American Empire.
