 DISCOVER: Why Successful People Get More Things Done Before 9 A.M. Having trouble achieving your goals? The reason most people aren't successful is they fail to follow a day-by-day strategy. Instead they start each day, "hoping" they will have enough time to take action on their goals. If you closely examine the world's most successful people you'd see they start each day in an energized state, ready to accomplish any goal. What's their secret? The one thing they do differently is they prioritize each day so the most important task is completed first. Put simply, successful people have morning routines that help them feel energized and ready to focus on their most LinkedIn? First of all, they are all web-based to a large extent. Google allows you to search the web. Facebook and LinkedIn lets you connect to your friends or business contacts online. Twitter allows you to absorb and share information in an unprecedented manner. PayPal facilitates millions of payment processes on the web. YouTube is the largest resource of videos online, and Groupon allows people to team up via the web and strike deals with high discounts for local services. Second, they are all relatively young compared to companies such as Microsoft, Dell, or Apple. In fact,

Google and PayPal are the seniors with 13 years, while Groupon has not even celebrated its third birthday. Third, these companies have established a global presence through the impact of the lightning fast development of the Internet and effects of globalization. With Twitter as the only exception, they are pulling in millions and millions of revenue and are valued at several billion dollars. Start-ups are an important factor contributing to economic growth. An indispensable guide to starting your business from scratch

Think you know how to launch a successful business? Think again. Courtney and Carter Reum know startups. As early investors in the likes of Lyft, Pinterest and SpaceX, as well as founders of a multi-million-dollar company, they've seen what makes some businesses thrive - and some fail. Now, they draw on what they've learnt to offer a holistic guide to building your business. They reveal that most of the received wisdom is wrong - and offer counterintuitive examples from the likes of Airbnb, Uber and Facebook that chart a different path.

3 Pillar of Start Up Success & Failure by CA Abhishek Panara Mar 26 2022
The trend of being an entrepreneur has been seen in recent times. Every child once dreams of becoming a millionaire or even a billionaire and starts observing the unicorns and ideas behind them. Some copy the picture, or some find the inspiration out of the same and start working on how to be successful by some hook & crook. As all beginners want to become masters of business, what exactly happens that eventually most of the people land up doing a job for a lifetime or broke for some sometimes or even a lifetime? What's the reason behind the failure of any start-up or settled business also?
