Marketing Horizons: A 1980's Perspective Nov 24 2021

Founded in 1971, the Academy of Marketing Science is an international organization dedicated to promoting timely explorations of phenomena related to the science of marketing in theory, research, and practice. Among its services to members and the community at large, the Academy offers conferences, congresses and symposia that attract delegates from around the world. Presentations from these events are published in this Proceedings series, which offers a comprehensive archive of volumes reflecting the evolution of the field. Volumes deliver cutting-edge research and insights, complimenting the Academy's flagship journals, the Journal of the Academy of Marketing Science (JAMS) and AMS Review. Volumes are edited by leading scholars and practitioners across a wide range of subject areas in marketing science. This volume includes the full proceedings from the 1980 Academy of Marketing Science (AMS) Annual Conference held in Dallas, Texas, entitled Marketing Horizons: A 1980's Perspective.

Student Activity Funds Jul 01 2022 While providing additional monies and educational opportunities for students, student activity funds can also create accounting and control nightmares for school business administrators. This book helps school business officials establish procedures for tracking and controlling student activity funds at the school and district levels. The book also provides an assessment framework for students, activity sponsors, or administrative staff who are performing internal audits. Sample forms and worksheets in every chapter make this practical text a true 'how-to' guide.
