Cochrane Handbook for Systematic Reviews of Interventions Sep 28 2022 Healthcare providers, consumers, researchers and policy makers are inundated with unmanageable amounts of information, including evidence from healthcare research. It has become impossible for all to have the time and resources to find, appraise and interpret this evidence and incorporate it into healthcare decisions. Cochrane Reviews respond to this challenge by identifying, appraising and synthesizing research-based evidence and presenting it in a standardized format, published in The Cochrane Library (www.thecochranelibrary.com). The Cochrane Handbook for Systematic Reviews of Interventions contains methodological guidance for the preparation and maintenance of Cochrane intervention reviews. Written in a clear and accessible format, it is the essential manual for all those preparing, maintaining and reading Cochrane reviews. Many of the principles and methods described here are appropriate for systematic reviews applied to other types of research and to systematic reviews of interventions undertaken by others. It is hoped therefore that this book will be invaluable to all those who want to understand the role of systematic reviews, critically appraise published reviews or perform reviews themselves.

How to Become a Spy Feb 27 2020 During World War II, training in the black arts of covert operation was vital preparation for the “ungentlemanly warfare” waged by the Special Operations Executive (SOE) against Hitler’s Germany and Tojo’s Japan. In the early years of the war, the SOE set up top secret training schools to instruct prospective agents in the art of being a spy. Soon there was an international network of schools in operation in secluded locations ranging from the Scottish Highlands to Singapore and Canada.

Reproduced here is one of the most comprehensive training syllabi used at SOE’s Special Training Schools (STSs) instructing agents on how to wreak maximum havoc in occupied Europe and beyond. A staggering array of unconventional skills are covered—from burglary, close combat, and silent killing, to utilizing propaganda, surveillance, and disguise—giving an unprecedented insight into the workings of one of WWII’s most intriguing organizations. These files, released from the British National Archive, put covert history in readers’ hands. Uncover an exciting, little-known part of WWII history and delve into the inner workings of a real spy network. Skyhorse Publishing, as well as our Arcade imprint, are proud to publish a broad range of books for readers interested in history--books about World War II, the Third Reich, Hitler and his henchmen, the JFK assassination, conspiracies, the American Civil War, the American Revolution, gladiators, Vikings, ancient Rome, medieval times, the old West, and much more. While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller, we are committed to books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home.

Training Manual for Human Service Workers in Major Disasters

Dec 19 2021 This Manual represents a first effort to produce a training instrument to be used in the development of an effective response to the emotional problems which may occur when a major disaster disrupts the functioning of individuals, families, and communities. It discusses the principles and techniques of crisis intervention, which aim: to relieve current emotional stress and to forestall or diminish future emotional difficulties. This Manual includes techniques which have been developed from thousands of emergency calls to a Suicide Prevention Center and have been adapted to the kinds of problems which are caused by major disasters.

The Tepaphone, Magic Mirrors, Magic Dolls and Living Pictures Sep 16 2021 This book provides a deeper look into the magical use of the tepaphone, magic mirrors, magical dolls and living pictures for the students of magic. In the legends of magic there are many stories of magical tools that were used by witches and wizards. The number of tools mentioned is vast and would fill the garage of any modern-day magician to the full. This book is part of the Franz Bardon series and the magical tools covered in it are those specifically referred to in detail by Franz Bardon. What makes the book special is that it also provide readers with insights to related practices as described by those who influenced Bardon or were his peers. The tepaphone is a magical instrument used to transmit magical vibrations over distances. Although feared for its use in magical attacks, this book indicates its potential use for healing and doing good. The book describes its working and construction in detail. The use of magic mirrors for purposes of ritual magic has, up to now, been scarcely recommended in books on magic, as initiates have kept it a great secret. It is a very powerful magical tool that Bardon used as a great instrument of communication and to "look in on friends". The use of magic dolls and magic pictures is a long lost art in magical circles and this book provides a unique description of their construction and use. Finally it is pointed out that the book emphasise the fact that the use of these tools are dependent on the magical ability of its operator and creator. The book therefore contain the basic exercises needed to develop the required skills.
