Records of My Life, Vol. 1 of 1 (Classic Reprint) Feb 18 2022 Excerpt from Records of My Life, Vol. 1 of 1 At length the respectable character of my father, and his attention to his profession, induced my grandfather to give his consent to the marriage. I was the first offspring of this union, and as it appeared in due tune that my father's family was likely to increase, Mr. Foot. Thermae Romae, Vol. 3 Mar 19 2022 Though he has been trapped in the twenty-first century for several weeks, Lucius is still amazed at the wondrous innovations of the flat-faced people, and meeting Satsuki has given him an even greater understanding of the things he has seen - not to mention an undeniable flutter in his heart. But despite his curiosity for this land, Lucius worries at the amount of time that has passed since he left Rome. The political atmosphere was already tense after the death of the emperor's heir, and Lucius fears what may befall Rome and the ailing Hadrian in his absence. Yet matters are no less precarious in the hot-springs town of Ito. With aggressive developers bullying the established inns, Lucius may be called upon to save the sacred appreciation for the bath both in the past and in the present in this final volume of THERMAE ROMAE!

Autobiography of the German musician famous for his operas.

Text, Theory, Space Apr 08 2021 Focusing on two white settler societies, South Africa and Australia, this book investigates the meaning of 'the South' as an aesthetic, political geographical and cultural space. This is a landmark in post-colonial theory and criticism. Text, Theory, Space is a landmark in post-colonial criticism and theory. Focusing on two white settler societies, South Africa and Australia, the contributors investigate the meaning of 'the South' as an aesthetic, political, geographical and cultural space. Drawing upon a wide range of disciplines which include literature, history, urban and cultural geography, politics and anthropology, the contributors examine crucial issues including: * defining what 'the South' encompasses * investigating ideas of space, history, land and landscape * claiming, naming and possessing land * national and personal boundaries * questions of race, gender and nationalism

The Best Friends in My Life Vol 2 Nov 03 2020 John Young whom we now know is renamed Adam the Lonely joins his extended Family. After a few silent moments, Panther calls out and asks Adam a question.

"What does immortal mean?" I answer, "living forever, incorruptible, I suppose." Hamish calls out, "What's that actually mean though." "well, it means our bodies don't decay or rot, we live forever like we do today in eternity." "Then Adam, tell us why down on earth do earthlings bother about all the preaching associated with Gods and Deities? Creating fear over sin and all that other stuff like devils and hell, Purgatory, Limbo and the garbage about Angels and Heaven?" I give a big sigh and say, "Gee you guys the questions seem really dark this morning, what's brought this on?" Panther stares directly into my eyes and says, "We just want to know the truth. You know down on earth animals were not able to talk with an earthling but up here we all speak to each other now that's weird don't you think?" I nod in agreement and say, "You know guys when humans first were established on the earth they had no language to communicate with each other and it was the various sounds made by animals that were taken on board with humans and they with a more balanced mind were able to take animal sounds and make words from them. So you see all animals gave to earthling the gift of the gab. It didn't take long for earthlings to realise that cats and dogs could manipulate earthlings to be their nanny and that hasn't changed since we came to "The Wilderness Park" we are still your nanny." "Well then pipes up Panther, we can't be that thick after all if it is animals who started off language to help earthlings exist." I nod in agreement.

The Dogs in My Life Jul 23 2022 "The Dogs in My Life" captures the love and warmth shared between Supreme Master Ching Hai and her numerous dogs with full-color photos and poetic captions written from the canines' point of view. The Supreme Master Ching Hai had been compiling these touching dog tales since she began adopting them, one after another, from shelters in 2001. It was a miraculous journey for these dogs in their rebirth through her compassion. Readers of this book will see dogs in a new light -- noble beings with a whole lot of love!

Three Roads In Life Vol.2 Sep 25 2022 IF the original conception of this tale was owing to the story of an old and valued schoolfellow who took service in Austria, and rose to rank and honors there, all the rest was purely fictitious. My friend had made a deep impression on my mind by his narratives of that strange life, wherein, in the very midst of our modern civilization, an old-world tradition still has its influence, making the army of to-day the veritable sons and descendants of those who grouped around the bivouac fires in Wallenstein's camp. Of that more than Oriental submission that graduated deference to military rank that chivalrous devotion to the "Kaiser" which enter into the soldier heart of Austria, I have been unable to reproduce any but the very faintest outlines, and yet these were the traits which, pervaded all my friend's stories and gave them character and distinctiveness.

The Story of My Life Vol. 5 in London and Moscow Sep 13 2021

Casanova was an Italian adventurer and author from the Republic of Venice. His autobiography, Histoire de ma vie (Story of My Life), is regarded as one of the most authentic sources of the customs and norms of European social life during the 18th century. He has become so famous for his often complicated and elaborate affairs with women that his name is now synonymous with "womanizer." He associated with European royalty, popes and cardinals, along with luminaries such as Voltaire, Goethe and Mozart. He spent his last years in Bohemia as a librarian in Count Waldstein's household, where he also wrote the story of his life. Set of 6 volumes.

Story of My Life, Vol. 2 (Classic Reprint) Oct 14 2021 Excerpt from

Story of My Life, Vol. 2 Dr. Liddell, when it was shown up, only said, I think you are rather severe. As to education, I did not receive much more at Oxford this year than I had done before. The college lectures were the merest rubbish; and of what was learnt to pass the University examinations, nothing has since been of use to me, except the History for the final Schools. About fourteen years of life and above 5 4000 I consider to have been wasted on my education of nothingness. At Oxford, however, I was not idle, and the History, French, and Italian, which I taught myself, have always been useful. A History of England from the Conclusion of the Great War in 1815

Jun 17 2019

Letters from a Life Vol 2: 1939-45 Jan 25 2020 In May 1939 Britten and Pears disembarked at Montreal at the start of their American visit, which was to be a period of intense musical activity and new personal relationships. At the same time, the relationship between Britten and Pears deepened into a partnership that was to endure for almost forty years. Their absence from England during the first years of the war led to sharp public comment and controversy, much of it documented here. On their return from America in 1942, hostility to their pacifist convictions and to their homosexuality resurfaced. Prejudice and subterfuge even affected the première of Peter Grimes in 1945, although it could not prevent the opera from being an unprecedented success. The letters in this second volume from the years 1939 to 1945 are among the most fascinating of the correspondence, and - supplemented by the editors' detailed commentary and by exhaustive contemporary documentation - offer a unique insight into American history, politics and culture during the Second World War.

Fifty Years of My Life, Vol. 2 of 2 (Classic Reprint) Feb 06 2021 Excerpt from Fifty Years of My Life, Vol. 2 of 2 It was not without some trepidation that same afternoon that I knocked at the door of my father's house in Brook Street The first person I saw there was my eldest brother, Bur}', who had served in the Peninsula with the Grenadier Guards. He began quizzing me on my late adventure. I jokingly shook my fist at him, "What!" said he, "would you dare to raise your hand against your superior officer?" This was the first hint I received that the army was to be my profession. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
