Assessment Clear and Simple Aug 22 2021 The first edition of Assessment Clear and Simple quickly became the essential go-to guide for anyone who participates in the assessment process in higher education. With the increased pressure to perform assessment to demonstrate accountability, Assessment Clear and Simple is needed more than ever. This second edition of the classic resource offers a concise, step-by-step guide that helps make assessment simple, cost-efficient, and useful to an institution. It contains effective strategies for meeting the requirements of accreditation agencies, legislatures, review boards, and others, while emphasizing and showing how to move from data to actions that improve student learning. This thoroughly revised and updated edition includes many new or expanded features, including: Illustrative examples drawn from the author's experience consulting with more than 350 institutions A basic, no-frills assessment plan for departments and for general education Tips on how to integrate portfolios and e-portfolios into the assessment process Suggestions for using rubrics and alternatives to rubrics, including doing assessment for multidisciplinary work Clear instructions on how to construct a coherent institution-wide assessment system and explain it to accreditors Ideas for assigning responsibility for general education assessment Strategies for gathering information about departmental assessment while keeping the departmental workload manageable Information on how to manage assessment in times of budgetary cutbacks Praise for the Second Edition of Assessment Clear and Simple "Walvoord's approach to assessment is wonderfully straightforward; it is also effective in facilitating faculty engagement in assessment. We've applied a number of her methods to our campus assessment efforts with success. This book makes assessment both manageable and useful in improving and enhancing student learning."—Martha L. A. Stassen, director of assessment, University of Massachusetts, Amherst, and president, New England Educational Assessment Network (NEEAN) "Walvoord's work clearly presents the basics for getting started in assessment of student learning while honestly addressing the complexities of assessment when driven by faculty passion for student learning. This book is a valuable resource for the novice as well as the developing experts who are leading their institutions in academic assessment."—Bobbi Allen, faculty assessment director, Delta College

The Faith of Pygmies Jan 15 2021 When Angela comes into contact with little Wasse, she is a nomadic woman, aimless, insecure, full of regrets, who thinks she will never find a home...Twenty years later, Angela feels that no one will ever move her from the Cameroon jungle. But the deforestation project is about to devour the pygmy c& and sweep the mission classrooms; and, finally, tear out the giant rock near the waterfall, under which the remains of her father, old Hank, rest. But the very young Nora arrives, full of fantasy and mystery...Perhaps, everyone's salvation will depend on Angela's ability to get involved in this mystery, so that she, later, can get to the bottom of it?

Gender Ideologies and Military Labor Markets in the U.S. Sep 03 2022 Gender Ideologies and Military Labor Markets in the U.S. offers a comprehensive analysis of the relationship between changes in military gender ideologies and structural changes in U.S. military and society. By investigating how social and military change have influenced gender ideologies, the author develops an approach that (re-)connects military gender ideologies to the social conditions of their production and distribution and explains their transformation as effects of changing social and political relations and conflicts. Examining the role of different groups of social actors, media debates on women's military participation and gender ideologies inherent in depictions of military women, the author seeks to contextualise these ideologies are within structural change in the U.S. military and society, relating them to the gender-specific division of labour on civilian and military labor markets. This work provides a deeper understanding of the nexus between military re-structuring processes, women's military integration, and changes of gender ideologies in regard to war and the military, and will be of great interest to students and scholars of gender, security studies and American politics.

The Game Maker's Companion May 19 2021 The Game Maker's Companion is the long-awaited sequel to The Game Maker's Apprentice. This book picks up where the last book left off, advancing your game development journey with some seriously impressive gaming projects. This time you'll learn how to make professional-quality platform games with solid collision detection and slick control mechanisms and you'll get acquainted with a long-lost icon of platform gaming history on the way. You'll go on to discover techniques to add depth and believability to the characters and stories in your games, including The Monomyth, cut scene storyboarding, and character archetypes. This culminates in the creation of an original atmospheric platform-adventure which will take your GML programming skills to new heights. There's even a handy reference section at the back of the book which will be invaluable for adding common features to your own games. With contributions from four games industry professionals and a highly respected member of the Game Maker community, The Game Maker's Companion is another labor of love that will give you even more hours of enjoyment than the original. If you already own Game Maker, then you really must own this book as well.

Boys Of Summer Apr 05 2020 Bondi Beach Boys What's a girl to do with two sexy Aussie surfers? Ride the waves, of course... After weeks of lusting over a couple of hot surfers, Piper Doyle has the opportunity to turn fantasy into reality. There's just one problem--they're her new clients. When the men offer a no-strings-attached affair, Piper has a decision to make, one her body made for her weeks ago when she first started watching "her boys." She can't risk the job that could make or break her career, but she sure as hell isn't going to pass up this chance to live out her wildest dreams... Sam Bridges and Nate Russo share everything, from their home to their business to the occasional woman. Even themselves. But they've never shared what they feel for Piper. What starts out as hot sex with a willing woman turns into something none of them expected--but what's wrong with a few strings on a hot summer day at the beach... Sand, Surf And Sunnie There are lines friends don't cross, until crossing them is the only thing worth doing. Brandon and Zeke, best friends since childhood, made a pact to never to go after the one thing they both wanted--Sunnie. But there was never any rule about being attracted to her. Sunnie always thought she'd have the perfect normal life by now but every guy she dates turns out to be a bigger dud than the last. It's a shame her two best friends, Brandon and Zeke are off limits. Until that one day when she needed comfort and everything between the three of them shifts, a whole new relationship is opened up and with each encounter becomes more intense. For Sunnie, it's an unexpected complication. She's seen what more than two people in a relationship looks like and it isn't what she wants for her future, except she can't deny either of her best friends. Can Brandon and Zeke do more than seduce Sunnie into their bed? Can they persuade her to gamble permanently on the strength of three?

Mister Owita's Guide to Gardening Jan 27 2022 "In this profoundly moving memoir, Owita teaches Wall how to find grace amid heartbreak and to accept that beauty exists because it is fleeting—as in her garden, as in life." —People, 4 stars "A perfect spring awakening." —Good Housekeeping A true story of a unique friendship between two people who had nothing—and ultimately everything—in common. Carol Wall, a white woman living in a lily-white neighborhood in Middle America, was at a crossroads in her life. Her children were grown; she had successfully overcome illness; her beloved parents were getting older. One day she notices a dark-skinned African man tending her neighbor's yard. His name is Giles Owita. He bags groceries at the supermarket. He comes from Kenya. And he's very good at gardening. Before long Giles is transforming not only Carol's yard, but her life. Though they are seemingly quite different, a caring bond grows between them. But they both hold long-buried secrets that, when revealed, will cement their friendship forever.

Christian Character Mar 29 2022 Anglican schools in the independent sector are proud of their traditions and their Christian foundation. All such schools will now be subject to a common inspection regime. This work aims to provide support and guidance for schools wishing to: prepare for inspection, review how their Christian foundation is reflected in their practice and develop their Christian character. It should also help those involved in the inspection process to deepen their understanding of the essential characteristics of an independent school within the Anglican tradition.

Neurology for Mrcp May 31 2022 This book is the essential revision guide for neurology in the Membership of the Royal College of Physicians (MRCP). Neurology has been rated as the most difficult subject in MRCP examinations and there has been no concise and easy-to-use revision guide to help candidates through the exams until now. Neurology for MRCP is written by two experienced neurologists who have taught both the written (Part 1 and Part 2) and clinical (PACES) sections of the exam. This pioneering new book will also be useful for medical students sitting for their final examinations and for doctors who are preparing for the PLAB examination.
