Remind Me How This Ends Jul 31 2022 TENDER AND TOUGH, THIS GORGEOUS STORY OF LOVE, LOSS AND FRIENDSHIP WILL PULL YOU IN HEART-FIRST : Fiona Wood, award-winning author of Wildlife and Cloudwish Milo was a discoloured memory with blurred edges and a washed-out palette. Yet five minutes with him and everything came back to me in an instant. Layla Montgomery's life fell apart at thirteen. After her mum died in a shock accident, Layla's grieving father packed their bags and forced her to leave behind everything she'd ever known. Milo Dark has been stuck on pause since the Year 12 exams. His long-term girlfriend moved 300 kilometres away for uni, his mates bailed for bigger things, and he's convinced he missed the reminder to plan out the rest of his life. As kids, Layla and Milo shared everything - their secrets, a treehouse and weekends at the river. But they haven't spoken since her mum's funeral. That is, until Layla shows up five years later in his parents' bookshop without so much as a text message. Pretty soon they're drawn into a tangled mess that guarantees someone will get hurt. And while it's a summer they'll never forget, is it one they'll want to remember? A boy-meets-girl-again story from the award-winning author of The Intern and Faking It. MORE PRAISE FOR REMIND ME HOW THIS ENDS "Bursting with humour and heart, Gabrielle Tozer reflects the pain, pressures and pleasures of life between high school and what comes next." - Will Kostakis, award-winning author of The First Third and The Sidekicks "A tale full of heart with characters who - by the final page - feel like friends. Milo Dark is the boy next door I always wanted. Gabrielle Tozer has delivered a story with depth and heart. Milo and Layla have stayed in my head long after the final page." - Rebecca Sparrow, author of Ask Me Anything and Find Your Tribe "How refreshing to read a book in which the real love story is the one between a young girl and her mum. It's rare to see grief explored in teen fiction, rarer still to see it handled in such a nuanced way." - Danielle Miller, author of Loveability and CEO of Enlighten Education and Goodellas

Beautiful Mess Jun 17 2021 "This is a strong, character-driven story from a talented playwright and novelist, which tackles some hefty issues with lightness and humour. It is an impressive debut." Books-Publishing Since Ava lost Kelly, things haven't been going so well. Even before she gets thrown out of school for shouting at the principal, there's the simmering rage and all the weird destructive choices. The only thing going right for Ava is her job at Magic Kebab. Which is where she meets Gideon. Skinny, shy, anxious Gideon. A mad poet and collector of vinyl records with an aversion to social media. He lives in his head. She lives in her grief. The only people who can help them move on with their lives are each other. The winner of the 2016 Text Prize, Beautiful Mess is funny and sad and a bit screwed up and romantic and absolutely real. In other words, a lot like life. Claire Christian is a novelist and playwright who lives in Brisbane. She has had three plays published by Playlab, and her play Bloom was shortlisted for the Griffin Award in 2009. She was one of YWCA Queensland's 125 leading women of 2013. "A book full of heart and hope. Claire Christian's voice leaps off the page, brimming with energy and verve." Judges' comments, Readings Young Adult Book Prize "A raw, affecting coming-of-age story that starts a conversation about mental health." Readings "Beautiful Mess is a powerful, poignant novel about love, loss, and learning that even though we might feel cracked or broke at times, we are still beautiful... Claire Christian must be commended for tackling some of the most confronting themes in YA with sincerity and heart." Written Word Worlds "An engrossing read that brings together Ava and Gideon, two emotionally flawed and troubled characters not unlike Libby and Jack in Jennifer Niven's Holdings Up the Universe or Eleanor and Park of Rainbow Rowell's book of the same title." Readings "Beautiful Mess tackles young adult issues head on, but with a lightness of touch that lifts it from the dark topics it explores. A debut novel with memorable, authentic characters that touch your heart, float into your life and leave you wanting more." Magpies "A truly touching story of young people trying to navigate their way through real problems. I highly recommend this novel and congratulate Claire on a great debut." Lamot Books "Claire is such a lovely bubble of positivity. I'm excited to see what she brings to Aussie YA." Danielle Binks, Alpha Reader "Beautiful Mess is a stunning read. Claire Christian has delivered a raw and moving debut with beautifully flawed, well-drawn characters who you can't help but fall in love with." Gabrielle Tozer "Claire Christian delivers an honest and searing depiction of the flow-on effects of grief... A book with a lot of heart and hope and a useful compass for teens facing similar issues." Kids' Book Review "Bittersweet and funny... A beautiful book with important words to say about mental health, love and brokenness." Paper Fury "Beautiful Mess is a wonderful reflection of complexities of adolescence. Palpable, poignant and captivating, the narration of two adolescents finding moments of solace in one another. Claire Christian is a captivating, compassionate and remarkable debut author composing a narrative that will linger long after the final page." Diva Booknerd "Beautiful Mess is the most sensitive explanation of depression and how it affects lives that I have ever read. If you read any other book and felt a bit uncomfortable about the depiction of depression, read this one and understand more. Recommend it to your teenagers, your students, your friends with teen kids. It might help them understand and recognise themselves in some of the pages." The Sapling "Tender and insightful... An enlightened look at youth suicide and mental health." New Zealand Herald "Claire has created an authentic and informative book for young adults, while also an enjoyable read." Tea in the Treetops "The characterisation is strong and works wonderfully with the sinuous dialogue. In these darkened lives there are some light and funny moments, cleverly crafted by Claire Christian... All libraries for young adults should stock at least one copy of this book." Reading Time "A raw, beautifully written story that sensitively tackles grief, suicide, self-harm and first sexual experience." NZ Women's Weekly "A funny and sad rom-com that doesn't sugar-coat the grittier parts of teenage angst." Readings Best Young Adult Books 2017 "The issues that are tackled in this book are important... Anxiety and depression, self-harm, suicide and grief are covered without making it feel like that's all the book was written to do." Boffins Books "Beautiful Mess doesn't shy away from how rough the teen years can be, but also demonstrates the possibilities of healing and provides quite a few laughs to boot." Readings "The characters are engaging, and their emotional struggles are palpable... While the majority of the plot is dark and grim, support from caring adults and siblings brings about an ending that is realistic and hopeful. VERDICT Recommended for most public library young adult collections." School Library Journal "Tender and absorbing, this debut novel from Australia tackles challenging topics... with an open and loving hand. It deals with myriad emotions and allows the healing process to be organic. The sweetness of the characters rises above the darkness they carry, and their honest desire for acceptance... will resonate with a wide range of readers." Booklist

The Puzzler Sep 20 2021 The New York Times bestselling author of The Year of Living Biblically goes on a rollicking journey to understand the enduring power of puzzles: why we love them, what they do to our brains, and how they can improve our world. "Even though I've never attempted the New York Times crossword puzzle or solved the Rubik's Cube, I couldn't put down The Puzzler." —Gretchen Rubin, author of The Happiness Project and Better Than Before What makes puzzles—jigsaws, mazes, riddles, sudokus—so satisfying? Be it the formation of new cerebral pathways, their close link to insight and humor, or their community-building properties, they're among the fundamental elements that make us human. Convinced that puzzles have made him a better person, A.J. Jacobs—four-time New York Times bestselling author, master of immersion journalism, and nightly crossword—set out to determine their myriad benefits. And maybe, in the process, solve the puzzle of our very existence. Well, almost. In The Puzzler, Jacobs meets the most zealous devotees, enters (sometimes with his family in tow) any puzzle competition that will have him, unpacks the history of the most popular puzzles, and aims to solve the most impossible head-scratchers, from a mutant Rubik's Cube, to the hardest corn maze in America, to the most sadistic jigsaw.
