Casino Chronicle Nov 21 2021 Casino Chronicle is the story of how one man contributed a number of visionary ideas that the casino he worked for used to grow its business and add comforts to its customers. This should be a story about great success for the writer and his employer, but unfortunately it is not. This memoir is also the chronicle of how the author's ideas were stolen, under the guise of an "employee suggestion program," then he was marginalized, his sanity questioned, and then ultimately pushed aside. It revolves around a series of dark chapters from 1996 to 2004 that would change the author's life, but also teach valuable lessons about the nature of casinos and the truth about what can go wrong between the powerful and the powerless. This is one man's story, but it could happen to anybody.

The Apo$state Aug 19 2021 The Apostate is a whistleblower's account of the Deep State Better Business Bureau's awards racket that funds a covert seditious anti-American new world order agenda. The author alleges that the Council of Better Business Bureaus (CBBB) launched a specious integrity awards program in the year 2000 to overcome the BBB franchise's stagnant growth and organizational insolvency, which resulted in marketplace sovereignty and globalist conquest. BBB awards were designed to promote members, disparage nonmember competition, and support the CBBB through awards-gotten revenue money-laundered as "bureau dues." Consumers are exploited and hoodwinked by phony BBB awards; the public is not told that awards are not evaluated and based on an honor code. In fact, awards are distributed to only members and won through best answers to applications' ethics' questions; and there is no on-site verification process to validate members' responses. The BBB's awards program is a successors' remix of predecessors' Prohibition-era "Before You Invest, Investigate" securities program that contributed to the Stock Market Crash of 1929. During the Roaring Twenties, the NYSE filtered "$50,000,000,000" billion dollars in worthless securities through the New York Bureau's bogus investigative program. In 1932, U.S. Senator Duncan Upshaw Fletcher (D-FL), later Chairman of the Committee on Banking and Currency (Pecora Commission), indicted the Better Business Bureau, NYSE, and Investment Banker's Association "as the greatest racket ever known in its history." The author won several BBB awards for her former employer. After winning the most coveted Pinnacle award in 2008, the con artist employer entrapped the author in consumer fraud. The author reported the employer to the CBBB and Houston Better Business Bureau, but was vilified, targeted, and persecuted. The employer was sued by the author for employment-related claims, but the Houston Bureau allegedly hijacked her private lawsuit, fabricated felonious charges, and bribed the District Court judge. B-men attempted to imprison the author to bury her damning testimony and evidence that threatened to ruin the BBB's pristine scam buster image and awards' cash cow. And the Houston Bureau manipulated court strings delaying the author's trial while rigging another trial's verdict involving defamation to use against the author. After procuring a favorable ruling, the Houston Bureau immediately green-lit the author's trial and segued its attorney into legal proceedings to fabricate counterclaims of slander, breach of fiduciary duties, and conversion/theft. The Apostate reveals FDR's indoctrination of the Better Business Bureau into the Deep State in 1941, whose Truman-inspired footprints begat the CIA. Today, the Bureau is an autonomous nation state that hides its militarized operations behind a humble philanthropic nonprofit facade. The BBB's draconian digital dynasty connects to the European Union, which is currently seeding oppressive Sharia blasphemy laws throughout the world, including the United States and social media. Accordingly, the author suffered cybercrime and sabotage for years until publication. Caveat emptor has returned, and consumers must beware! The BBB is an imposter consumer advocate promoting fake monopolizing nefarious awards to finance globalist aspirations seeking to replace the U.S. Republic with a one-government NWO.

The Better Business Bureau Murders Mar 26 2022 The lives of Ben Pierce, President of the Philadelphia Better Business Bureau, and Kate Flaherty, Philadelphia homicide detective, become intertwined after the murder of Bill Rose, Philadelphia's most famous public prosecutor. Rose, for years the top prosecutor in the Philadelphia DA's office and now a post-retirement employee of the BBB, is found shot dead in his office. Who did it? A murderer he prosecuted? A Philadelphia roofer whose BBB membership he terminated? An old lover? A Jew hater? The pursuit of the murderer leads to a shattering and surprising conclusion, and to the possible start of a romantic relationship between Pierce and Flaherty.
