Real Estate Principles Sep 03 2022 "The study and practice of real estate draws on a multitude of disciplines including architecture, urban and regional planning, building construction, urban economics, law, and finance. This diversity of perspectives presents a challenge to the instructor of a real estate principles course. Depending on their backgrounds and training and on the interests of the students, some instructors may choose to emphasize the legal concepts that define and limit the potential value of real estate. Other instructors may focus more on licensing and brokerage issues (popular topics with many students) or on the investment decision-making process. he study and practice of real estate draws on a multitude of disciplines including architecture, urban and regional planning, building construction, urban economics, law, and finance. Real Estate Principles: A Value Approach Mar 29 2022 Real Estate Principles: A Value Approach demonstrates how value is central to virtually all real estate decision-making. Students using Ling and Archer should finish the course with a value-oriented framework and a set of valuation and decision making tools that can be applied in a variety of real-world situations. The key to making sound investment decision is to understand how property values are created, maintained, increased or destroyed. Since the launch of Real Estate Principles: A Value Approach, significant and lasting changes have come upon the world of real estate. This is very true in real estate finance and capital sources where most of the traditional lenders have been transformed or displaced, giving way to a radically different set of players in mortgage finance. There has been change with profound and far-reaching implications in a world where it is understandable that property values can go down as well as up. This realization will color every aspect of real estate investment, finance and transactions for the foreseeable future.

Real Estate Principles Jun 07 2020 This manual is prepared for the use and benefit of all who may be seriously considering entering the real estate profession or upgrading their licenses to the broker level in Oklahoma. The license applicant must be familiar with the basic technical knowledge contained herein, as well as the wide range of ethical obligations imposed on the real estate professional. A thorough understanding of the Oklahoma Real Estate License Code and the Oklahoma Real Estate License Rules is essential for success in the real estate business. This book is not offered as a substitute in any way for competent legal advice or services where such is needed. With the rapid changes taking place in all phases of real estate activity and changes in law, it is obvious that this book will be at least partially obsolete soon after publication. Appreciation is hereby expressed to all those who generously contributed time, knowledge, and interest in the development of this text. Special thanks and appreciation to my wife, Nola, without whose tireless efforts, patience and endurance, this book would never have existed.

South Carolina Advanced Real Estate Principles Aug 29 2019 The South Carolina Advanced Real Estate Principles: the “SCAP” Unit II Program has been developed to satisfy South Carolina’s 30-hour Unit II requirement. The course also fulfills the Real Estate Commission’s objective of giving South Carolina real estate licensees a carefully developed reinforcement of key real estate brokerage principles, concepts, and practices necessary to initiate a productive, professional career in real estate. Beyond an initial review of key principles, the SCAP Program takes on a further examination of essential skills and practices that will be necessary to meet client and customer transactional requirements within South Carolina’s legal framework. Such skills examined include compliance with South Carolina agency and disclosure laws; how to properly represent and disclose property characteristics; and an intensive look at South Carolina transaction contracts: listings; the sales contract; options and contracts for deed. Beyond its agency and contracts topics, the SCAP further examines the other key subjects required by the Commission: ethics; handling trust funds; regulatory compliance; and critical cornerstones of professional practice. Finally, the last two modules of the SCAP program examine the various methods used to measure real property; price and appraise real property; and evaluate how real property is evaluated as a professional investment. These considerations encompass income properties as well as residential non-income property, and include pre-tax analysis as well as after-tax analysis. Taken as a whole, the South Carolina Advanced Real Estate Principles program is designed to deepen the new licensee’s understanding of how brokerage works in actual practice – and how it is supposed to be undertaken in view of today’s standards of professionalism, ethics, and legal compliance.

Built Up Nov 12 2020 Built Up uncovers the roots of the global real estate industry in the machinations of a patron of Shakespeare, the merged lineages of business savvy women and men, startlingly innovative collaborations with the first English architect, and the radical explorations of other denizens of early modern London – and what those colorful origins mean for the practice of property development today. Uniting insights from the author’s career as an internationally recognized developer with meticulous archival research, this resource for scholars and professionals synthesizes economic history and the latest planning and finance literature. The result is an unprecedented effort to codify the principles and activities of real estate development as a foundation for future academic research and practical innovation. By tracing the evolution of property development to its earliest days, Built Up establishes the theoretical groundwork for the next phase in the transformation of the urban environment.
