The Why Book Oct 08 2020 We as adults constantly impart knowledge to the youth, but; have we as adults ever considered the question "Why." Why is one of the most popular questions asked by our young children. Children are full of questions and they are always searching for answers. When children become school age, they become curious about how things are created; how they got here; why do they have to go to bed, why do they have to do homework; or why do they have to eat their vegetables. Children always look up to adults for answers whether these answers are right or wrong. When we as adults don't know the answers, we trust that God will give us an answer that is pleasing to him so that we can lead our children down the right path in life.
