The Love and Respect Experience Jul 20 2021 A Devotional Unlike Any Other! Through the millions of products sold on Love & Respect, Emerson Eggerichs has transformed marriages around the world with his biblically based approach to understanding the love that she most desires and the respect that he desperately needs. Now, in this long-awaited release, Emerson has created an experience for couples that is effective, flexible and life-changing. To build this couples devotional, Eggerichs has taken the top concerns that surfaced in a survey of thousands of couples and has developed 52 devotionals around the three cycles that are at the heart of Love and Respect. On one occasion the couple will be talking about how to stop the Crazy Cycle or keep it at bay. The very next devotional will talk about a concept built upon the Rewarded Cycle, which stresses the ultimate purpose for marriage. And the next may have both people talking about ways to use the Energizing Cycle in their efforts to love and respect each other. Some may ask, "Why 52 and not 365, like other couples devotionals I have seen?" The author's research shows that married couples don't want to deal with that much material, that often. Therefore, the specific devotionals, which can be done weekly or at any chosen pace, are specifically guided to what couples say they most need. And this is a husband-friendly devotional, having been written and designed in such a way that the husband can feel comfortable in the entire process. With this wealth of new material and video devotionals available online to support the product, The Love & Respect Experience will be indispensable to anyone wishing to better their marital relationship.

Love and Identity Jul 28 2019 Reading scripture plays an especially important part in our walk with Jesus. The Bible teaches us about God's nature, including how to live and what to avoid. It is our road map for life. But how much time do we spend meditating on what the Bible says? Reading is one thing, but really pondering, thinking and applying what we read is what brings about change in our lives. In Love & Identity, these 52 weekly devotionals are designed to help you grow in both love and in your identity in Christ. Identity and love are fundamental in our walk. Knowing who we are in Christ and knowing His love for us are the foundations for a deeper, more meaningful relationship with God. It is what helps to stabilise us in a crazy, unpredictable world. Many people feel lost or like they have no purpose simply because they don't fully know who they are in Christ and lack revelatory understanding of His love and passion for them. It has been said that we can forget up to 70% of new information within 24 hours. We are sometimes tempted to just read a devotional once and move on. If we spend a more time revising what we read, such as 7 days instead of one, we remember more of what we read. Make the most out of these 52 devotionals by meditating on each one for seven days (one devotional per week), applying what you read, and see the transformation change in your life.

For the Love of Our Husbands Feb 12 2021 Being a godly wife can be difficult. It requires time, commitment, change, and a daily choice to work toward God's best in one's marriage. For some wives, the path to a godly marriage can be confusing. Thanks to Darby Dugger's For the Love of Our Husbands, wives now have a guide to achieving God's design for their marriage. Dugger highlights several ways wives can grow in their relationship with Christ, in their role as a wife, and in their marriage. And, while it may seem obvious that a wife must pray for her husband, he and his spiritual needs are often left out of daily prayers. To help alleviate that oversight, Dugger provides daily, Scripture-based prayers for their husbands and includes a brief weekly devotion to help bring God's hand into their marriage. In For the Love of Our Husbands, Dugger conveys the simple principle that while striving to become a better wife, one must ultimately become a better woman of faith as well.
