Social Semiotics of Arabic Satellite Television Mar 18 2022 Arabic satellite television is a phenomenon that has swept the Arab world in less than two decades and is said to have dramatically changed the Arab region. It has created a world of contrasts and contradictions between tradition and liberalism and a polarization of views and opinions, all vying for dominance and control. This book examines the social semiotics of Arabic satellite television and studies the multimodal representations of Arab social and cultural values and their implied meanings in a communication medium that heavily relies on imported western models.

Panorama of the Classical World May 28 2020 This imaginative approach to the era in which Western civilization was born is a thorough—and thoroughly accessible—synthesis of the Greek, Roman, and Etruscan worlds, spanning the period from Late Geometric Greece in around 700 b.c., to the rule of Constantine in the early 4th century a.d. The authors incorporate important developments in recent scholarship, including ideas of gender, war and pacifism, imperialism and dissent, political propaganda, economy, cultural identity, racism, hygiene and diet, and public and private uses of space. The book highlights the modern relevance of classical antiquity, from its influence on contemporary politics to the representation of the female body in Western art, and concludes by charting the history of classical civilization. The extensive reference section includes biographies, an introduction to classical mythology, a glossary of technical terms and vase shapes, as well as a timeline, map, bibliography, and index.

Arabic Satellite Television and Australian Arabs: Participation and Integration in Mainstream Society Jan 16 2022 "This book examines the influence of Arabic satellite television on the Arab migrant community in Australia. It investigates the nature and degree of this influence on the levels of social, civic and political participation in mainstream society by exploring whether Arabic satellite television promoted exclusion or inclusion in society and examining the correlation between satellite television viewing and participatory engagement in society."--Back cover.

Far from being simply a reference tool, the book provides a rich trove of fascinating narratives that cover both the professional and personal lives of a colorful cast of characters.

Passport to Life Feb 17 2022 When I split with my wife ten years ago, my antidote for the resulting feeling of loss and the negative emotions that a marriage breakup engenders was to be dramatically life altering. At the age of fifty-five I planned to teach English in Asia and South America. However, the road from plan to realization was littered with mental and physical obstacles, some of which almost proved fatal. Somehow surviving these setbacks, I completed my quest by backpacking through Laos, Thailand, Cambodia, South America, Central America, and Burma. This is a tale about my physical, emotional, and psychological journey.

Path & I Aug 19 2019 THE PATH & I is the story of one man's attempt to obtain JUSTICE; it has cost him 30 years of his life, and in excess of GBP200,000. He is one of many who have suffered years of distress and financial burden in an attempt to protect their property from having "e;Rights of Way"e; imposed upon them. They have all suffered "e;INJUSTICE"e; while attempting to fight the ESTABLISHMENT (Government departments; Local Authorities; The JUDICIAL system; and various user groups). Despite, the assistance of Elected councillors; some local authorities; Members of Parliament; and many law-abiding citizens, who have failed to overcome the Corruption, and wrong doings that is prevalent within certain parts of our society. The cost and distress suffered by many has resulted in loss of property, the break-up of relationships; and in some cases, suicide. If it concerned the price of Petrol, or the suffering of Whales, Seals, or other animals, the general public would not allow it to happen. However, because of Reputational risks, and the threat of compensation payments, the corruption will continue. It requires the action of some honest, and courageous person or persons to place their head above the parapet, to halt the distress and financial burden being suffered by so many. The scales of JUSTICE are in your hands!
