Why I Write Aug 22 2021 George Orwell set out 'to make political writing into an art', and to a wide extent this aim shaped the future of English literature - his descriptions of authoritarian regimes helped to form a new vocabulary that is fundamental to understanding totalitarianism. While 1984 and Animal Farm are amongst the most popular classic novels in the English language, this new series of Orwell's essays seeks to bring a wider selection of his writing on politics and literature to a new readership. In Why I Write, the first in the Orwell's Essays series, Orwell describes his journey to becoming a writer, and his movement from writing poems to short stories to the essays, fiction and non-fiction we remember him for. He also discusses what he sees as the 'four great motives for writing' - 'sheer egoism', 'aesthetic enthusiasm', 'historical impulse' and 'political purpose' - and considers the importance of keeping these in balance. Why I Write is a unique opportunity to look into Orwell's mind, and it grants the reader an entirely different vantage point from which to consider the rest of the great writer's oeuvre. 'A writer who can - and must - be rediscovered with every age.' — Irish Times

Are you struggling with your GCSE essay writing? Need some help? Well, look no further. This clear and easy to follow guide will take you through all the major essay types you'll encounter in your GCSE English Language and Literature exams and coursework. The guide covers the following GCSE English Language and Literature essay types: Writing to Argue / Persuade Writing Descriptively Writing Narrative (aka short stories) Writing Analysis Each essay type is broken down into its ingredients, and guides you through from planning to writing, with plenty of examples and questions for you to try. The book forms part of the Examiner's Head series: check out the other titles, including AQA GCSE English Language 9-1 Revision. Darren Coxon has been teaching GCSE and A-Level English Literature for more than twenty years. In that time he estimates he's put at least 1,000 students through various GCSE exams. He can count on the fingers of one hand the number who didn't obtain at least a Grade 5 or 6, and most achieved the very highest grades (and that was always teaching in non-selective schools). He puts this success down to a unique method which he'll share with you inside these pages. So come with him on a journey inside the head of the examiner! He's with you all the way.

College Essay Essentials Oct 31 2019 Writing an amazing college admission essay is easier than you think! So you're a high school senior given the task of writing a 650-word personal statement for your college application. Do you tell the story of your life, or a story from your life? Do you choose a single moment? If so, which one? The options seem endless. Lucky for you, they're not. College counselor Ethan Sawyer (aka The College Essay Guy) will show you that there are only four (really, four!) types of college admission essays. And all you have to do to figure out which type is best for you is answer two simple questions: 1. Have you experienced significant challenges in your life? 2. Do you know what you want to be or do in the future? With these questions providing the building blocks for your essay, Sawyer guides you through the rest of the process, from choosing a structure to revising your essay, and answers the big questions that have probably been keeping you up at night: How do I brag in a way that doesn't sound like bragging? and How do I make my essay, like, deep? Packed with tips, tricks, exercises, and sample essays from real students who got into their dream schools, College Essay Essentials is the only college essay guide to make this complicated process logical, simple, and (dare we say it?) a little bit fun.
