Virtuous young ladies to become the brides of industrious settlers in a foreign land. The Company will pay the cost of the lady's dowry and travel. Returns not permitted, orphans preferred. Amsterdam, 1620. Jana Beil has learned that life rarely provides moments of joy. Having run away from a violent father, her days are spent searching for work in an effort to stay out of the city brothels, where desperate women trade their bodies for a mouthful of bread. But when Jana is hired as a servant for the wealthy and kind Master Reynst and his beautiful daughter Sontje, Jana's future begins to look brighter. Then Master Reynst loses his fortune on a bad investment, and everything changes. The house is sold to creditors, leaving Jana back on the street and Sontje without a future. With no other choice, Jana and Sontje are forced to sign with the East India Company as Company Daughters: sailing to a colonial Dutch outpost to become the brides of male settlers they know nothing about. Surviving Religious Burnout Mar 15 2021 Have you ever experienced burn out as a believer? What do you do when your faith feels stuck in a rut? While some focus on being more disciplined, there is another solution. Christianity is not about perfecting your spiritual routines. Freedom in Christ should lead to our souls being released, not restricted. How do we access a Christian walk that is refreshing and full of joy when we have become used to experiencing something less rewarding? Most well-meaning believers are unaware they have slipped into legalism. Further complicating this Christian performance trap is that you appear passionate and excited all the up to burning out. You can only run on this spiritual treadmill for so long before you realize you are going nowhere. The frustration of always moving but never arriving is enough to cause anyone to become discouraged and give up. In Surviving Religious Burnout, I hope to help you escape this pattern of exhaustion. This book will help you get out of your spiritual rut and into an enjoyable, meaningful Christianity. To do this, we will dig up the roots of burnout and plant seeds of truth that will lead to a flourishing faith.
