Unicode Demystified Aug 31 2022 Unicode is a critical enabling technology for developers who want to internationalize applications for global environments. But, until now, developers have had to turn to standards documents for crucial information on utilizing Unicode. In Unicode Demystified, one of IBM's leading software internationalization experts covers every key aspect of Unicode development, offering practical examples and detailed guidance for integrating Unicode 3.0 into virtually any application or environment. Writing from a developer's point of view, Rich Gillam presents a systematic introduction to Unicode's goals, evolution, and key elements. Gillam illuminates the Unicode standards documents with insightful discussions of character properties, the Unicode character database, storage formats, character sequences, Unicode normalization, character encoding conversion, and more. He presents practical techniques for text processing, locating text boundaries, searching, sorting, rendering text, accepting user input, and other key development tasks. Along the way, he offers specific guidance on integrating Unicode with other technologies, including Java, JavaScript, XML, and the Web. For every developer building internationalized applications, internationalizing existing applications, or interfacing with systems that already utilize Unicode.

Half Baked Love Jul 06 2020 LOVE, though a four letter word contains so much in it. Emotions, feelings, pain, and most of all tears. If love gives you happiness, it gives pain too. If love gives you smile, it gives you tears too. Love is divine, love is hellish. Every love story isn't complete, every love story doesn't have a happy ending. Half Baked Love consists of 25 such stories, which are incomplete, which would show you the dark side of love. The stories which would make you feel the pain which love gives. Some stories would bring tears to your eyes while some would make your heart skip a beat. A complete package to show how love is! Contributors Chandra Kant Jaisansaria, Akansha Mishra, Akash Sawle, Anjali Kapoor, Aparna Preethi, Ashwani Shakya, Bichismita Shasani, Damini Aggarwal, Dania Syed, Drashti Trivedi, Katiba Ikram, Kshitij Roshan, Maham Khan, Mustaq Sameer, Naisargi Bhatt, Nisha Raju, Oishee Mukherjee, Rajendra Kumar, Saheli Mitra, Salman Sowdagar, Samridhi Garg, Sharad Mishra, Tvisha Desai, Twinkle Mitruka, Zoya Khan

Dissevered (Khandita) May 04 2020 Belonging to what one may best describe as representative of the culture of the 'urban popular', the novella dissevered (khandita), published seventy years after independence, incorporates the birth pangs of a newly emergent nation experienced by the so-called 'gully boys', Gora, bias, and Sati, in a form that presents historical events through the techniques of fiction. Its added significance to the modern reader is its prescient quality, bringing to the fore dominant questions of nationalism, identity crises, communal disharmony, and citizenship that mark public discourse in the present times. In the portrayal of events and personalities which belong to the twin history of the Partition and the birth of a new nation (Bangladesh), and through a language of the gutters that ironically mimics the mores of civic society, The desire for unity of the nation felt by the three disoriented youths is in the realm of the ideal possible. This is metaphorically envisioned in the figure of Gandhi in Noakhali and as embodied in the desire for the nomadic female with amputated arms by satu, one of the three young men. This novella perhaps best illustrates Samaresh Bose's genius as a writer, who could translate his experience of historical time in all its multiple complexities without the imposition of any doctrine (despite his leftist leanings). It remains a unique depiction of the conflicting emotions experienced by ordinary folks on the eve of India's independence.

The Love Victim Dec 23 2021 'Love Victim' is a heart-wrenching debut channeling a melodramatic journey of two lovers. Nishkarsh and Barkha in their late 20's fall in sweet love and share their romantic moments in a journey full of twists and turns. This typical 21st century love meanders through a series of unexpected ghastly moments because little did they realize that life had planned it quite the opposite of their passionate love. Sailing through a multitude of emotions, they struggle to cope with their feelings, families and society. The fight for their true love climaxes at a dark turn with the most ghastly and unpredictable end of Nishkarsh and Barkha. Drawing inspiration from the realities of real life love stories, this novel takes you through a roller-coaster ride of emotions: from love, happiness, ecstasy, sensuous fantasy to shock, pain, horror and fatality. It is a must-read love 'ballad'.

THE AWAITED SPRING Apr 02 2020 How do you expect someone to be whose almost three decades of life has seen nothing but tragedy? From early loss of parents, orphanage-life, a broken marriage to being a single parent of a wee-aged child, Pritha Sharma has seen it all. It's as if the winter is everlasting for her. Layer after layer, the ice is getting frozen deeply which can only be thawed by a glimpse of Spring. The one she's awaiting. Amidst the tangled string-ball of complications her life has become, she was least expecting an attraction at first sight. Something that's here to change her whole life. Aadit Khanna was definitely born with a silver spoon but never got the chance to taste the sweetness of the food served with it. A full-timer Corporate guy who's part-time trying to nurse his broken heart since half a decade, keeping himself away from his family. The only person who's allowed to see and dress his scarring wound is him. His life is programmed and bland, lacking the cheerfulness of a Spring. Amidst the process of imprisoning his emotions inside his heart, he was least expecting an attraction at first sight. Something that's here to change his whole life. When Fate decides a destination, no path is worth leaving uncharted. When Spring decides to blossom happiness in your life, no heart is left with the possibility to deny. Especially, if it's The Awaited Spring.

Deceived Feb 10 2021 The man in the bushes came out of hiding, lifted the woman like a rag doll, cradled her in his arms, walked up to his car and dumped her in the boot, which was still open. He did not bother to check whether she was dead or alive. He then removed his blood-stained gloves, threw them over the body of the unconscious woman and closed the boot. It was chilling to see the precision with which he had done everything. From his brisk actions, it seemed as if hiding bodies in the boot of his car, was as routine a job as changing the tyre of his car. The bright headlights of his car sliced through the dark night as he drove away. A pool of thick, crimson-red blood on the road, was the mute witness to this macabre crime. Will the murderer be able to get away? Will Kalyani be able to save an innocent man from a terrible fate and put a ruthless killer behind bars? Having taken up this case, the renowned criminal lawyer has a lot at stake and everything to lose. In an emotionally challenging and mentally exhausting race against time, who will come out the winner?

Arabic and Chinese Handwriting Recognition Jan 24 2022 In the fall of 2006, the University of Maryland, along with various government and industrial sponsors, invited leading researchers from all over the world to a two-day Summit on Arabic and Chinese Handwriting Recognition (SACH 2006). The event acted as a complement to the biennial Symposium on Document Image Understanding Technology (SDIUT), providing a focused glimpse into the state of the art in Arabic and Chinese handwriting recognition. It offered a forum for interaction with prominent researchers at the forefront of the scientific community and provided an opportunity for participants to help explore possible directions of the field. This book is a result of the expansion, peer review, and revision of selected papers presented at this meeting. Handwriting recognition remains the Holy Grail of document analysis, and Arabic and Chinese scripts embrace many of the most significant challenges. We are pleased to have 16 scientific papers covering the original topics of handwritten Arabic and Chinese, as well as 2 papers covering other handwritten scripts. We asked each author to not only describe the techniques used in addressing the problem, but to attempt to identify the key research challenges and problems that the community faces. The result is an impressive collection of manuscripts that provide various detailed views of the state of research. In this book, six articles deal directly with Arabic handwriting. • Cheriet provides an overview of the problems of Arabic recognition and how systems can use natural language processing techniques to correct errors in lexicon-based systems.

Teaching Of English Sep 07 2020 Most of the B Ed courses in India include 'Teaching of English' as an essential component of the curriculum. The main focus of such courses is on different teaching methods, teaching of prose and poetry, developing reading and writing skills and the teaching of applied grammar. Teaching of English: A Practical Course for B Ed Students, offers insights into the above-mentioned topics for both in-service and prospective teachers, to develop necessary strategies for teaching English effectively and efficiently in the class. Part I examines the history of English in India, its present position and role in our schools, etc. Part II considers the different teaching methods and their implications for teaching English at the secondary stage. Part III concentrates on developing reading and writing skills, identifies 'bad' reading habits, describes the essentials of good handwriting, etc. Part IV considers the importance of teaching prose and poetry in the class and suggests ways to make their teaching/ learning more effective. It also discusses the different types of tests and suggests remedial measures that a teacher can undertake to prevent the mistakes that students commit while using English effectively. Part V discusses different kinds of grammars and the teaching of grammar.

The Ancient Egyptian Universal Writing Modes Nov 21 2021 The Egyptian Alphabetical language is the MOTHER and origin of all languages; and how it was diffused to become other 'languages' throughout the world. This book will show how the Egyptians had various modes of writings for various purposes , and how the Egyptian modes were falsely designated as "separate languages" belonging to others. ;the falsehood of having different languages on the Rosetta (and numerous other like) Stone; evaluation of the "hieratic" and "demotic" forms of writing. The book will also highlight how the Egyptian Alphabetical language is the MOTHER and origin of all languages (as confirmed by all writers of antiquities); and how this one original language came to be called Greek, Hebrew, Arabic and other 'languages' throughout the world—through deterioration of sound values via 'sound shifts', as well as foreign degradation of the original Egyptian writing forms. Girl of a Widow Jan 12 2021 Orthodox and outdated social codes imposed on widows cause Prabha, her mother-in-law, Yashoda, and daughter, Ritu great distress. Yashoda believes that the life of a widow is the most pitiable as she is considered an object of hatred that hampers her own progress and the progress of her whole family. There is no place where she can seek her existence, identity and pour out her grief. Widows are considered no longer fit to perform any pious and auspicious activities as society is under falsely prevailing dogmas, beliefs and superstitions. Prabha believes that instead of neglecting the widows, they need sympathy, acceptability and join hands of the people in every walk of life. Ritu feels great agony when listening to the taunts and comments of the neighbouring women on the widows. She overcomes the adverse situation by shifting from India to Chicago (America) to practise as a general physician. There, she seeks love and gets wounded in two consecutive volatile marriages: one with Sandeep, of Indian origin, and the other with Dr. Johnson, an American. The later one's failure causes her grandmother's heart attack, and she returns to India with her mother for her last cremation rites. The novel follows the powerful journey of the three and the challenges they face.
