My Dog Is As Smelly As Dirty Socks May 04 2020 How do you draw your smelly dog? Your playful daddy? Your yummy mommy? See how one girl does it in this simple, clever picture book that is comprised of family portraits made out of objects. For example, her baby brother is so noisy—as loud as a whistle, a horn, and even a fire truck!—that she creates a picture of him with wheels for eyes, a horn mouth, and holding a fire truck. After the girl has described everyone in her family (including herself, in great detail), she asks, "What does your special family look like?" encouraging readers to create their own portraits. With a list of objects at the end of the book to use as a guide, this is the ideal choice for budding artists everywhere. Here's a wonderful exploration of simile and metaphor for young readers. And don't miss the companion book My Best Friend is as Sharp as a Pencil!

Cole's Kingdom May 16 2021 "Introductions!" the man said with a kind smile. "I am King Enk, this is my kingdom – and you," he added with a flash of his dark eyes, "you are the one we have been waiting for, Cole." For as long as Cole can remember, he has always seemed very unimpressive next to his brother and sister. However, when a trip to his grandma's ancient home turns into the adventure of a lifetime, he is given a choice which makes him question everything that he thought he wanted. Hurlled into a strange place where even stranger creatures dwell and fierce powers are at play, Cole must find out where his own talents lie and put them to good use before time runs out. Follow Cole through the mousehole into Deriuss: a land where all you need is a little belief in yourself to unlock a world of magic.
