A Short Trekker Sep 28 2019 As a career cross-cultural missionary for 40 years with the Central American Mission, Dallas, Texas, John E. Miller at 5 foot 2 inches in height, trekked through Mexico and Spain to preach the gospel. In Mexico, 10 years, he trekked through the high mountains of Chihuahua to preach the gospel, traveling by foot and by horse to remote villages to treat the sick and pull teeth, to build a medical clinic, all for the purpose of making disciples of Jesus Christ who would meet as a body of Christ. And a group of new believers developed. And in the city of Puebla he taught at a seminary, managed a bookstore, delivered tapes to local radio stations for Back to the Bible, and administered a Bible Correspondence Course. In Spain, for 30 years, on the northern coast of the Basque region, he trekked through the high-rise apartments in towns and villages to make disciples. He planted churches, founded a Christian camp, and pioneered a ministry among the Basque people. Read how God used this SHORT TREKKER!
